I have always wanted to see my favourite football team play a match. I started watching their matches when I was just a kid. My dad is a big football fan and I think I got it from him. But honestly he watches the English football league most of the time. Sometimes, he watches the German league but he thinks our teams are the best in the world. And here I do not agree with him. I think the Spanish league teams are the best. And in my opinion, Barcelona is the best of them all.

I'd wanted to go to Barcelona many times. But there was always some kind of problem. First I had no money then I got a new job and another time I could not get a leave. I'd told my friends many times about my dream. For my 30th birthday they gave me a wonderful present - a ticket for a Barcelona match. I could not believe it. It was wonderful! And when I found out that it was a match of Barcelona and Manchester, I was very happy indeed. Manchester is the only English football club I really admire. My friends even booked a plane ticket for me. I just had to buy it. Luckily, it was a special offer so the ticket was quite cheap.

The day I went I was really excited. We took a flight from Manchester to Barcelona. Once we landed, we took a bus to the stadium. It was full of other football fans. They were wearing the colours of the teams they supported. The match was great as both teams played very well. First Barcelona scored two goals and at that moment I felt sorry for the English team. But soon Manchester got better and they scored a goal. The first half ended with Barcelona winning 2:1.

In the second half the English players did wonders. And they managed to score another goal. In the 40th minute of the second half! The result was 2:2. I was hoping Barcelona would score again and win but it did not happen. The match ended in a draw, which was a fair result as both teams played really well.

Speaker: Tom? Can I ask a question?

Tom: Sure. What is it?

S: How long does it take to get from Gatwick airport to the centre of London?

T: It depends on how you want to travel.

S: I'm not sure really. That is why I'm asking.

T: Well, let me check the Internet. Here it is. It takes about 45 minutes by car. The train is bit faster it takes only 30 minutes and by coach let me see. Oh yes, it is quite a long journey with all the stops on the way so it takes about one hour. Why are you asking?

S: A friend of mine is coming and he asked me to tell him what to choose.

T: Well where is he going to stay?

S: Not sure. He mentioned a hotel near Piccadilly Circus. But let me check his message again. No sorry I got it all wrong. It is the Piccadilly hotel near Victoria station.

T: Oh, in that case the best way is to go by train. It arrives at Victoria so he won't have to walk too far.

Welcome to the Brixton Hobby Clubs. We have lots of interesting activities here for you. So why not come and join us?

There are dance, theatre and arts clubs for children aged from 5 to 8. The dance and theatre clubs meetings are three times a week on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. On the first two days the club activities start at 5:30 p.m. But it's different on Fridays: the dance and theatre clubs always start half an hour earlier, that is at 5 p.m. The arts club is on Saturdays at 9:30 a.m.

For children aged between 9 and 12 we organize some more clubs: foreign languages lessons, the board games club, and the computer gaming club. The foreign languages and the board games club meetings are two times a week. The gaming club meetings are only on Saturdays. They are organized in the computer room near the café and start at 10 a.m.

Older teenagers can have fun singing or playing musical instruments. Teens can also learn about designing web pages or computer coding. Most club meetings are during the week late in the afternoon. But the computer coding club meets only at weekends, not during the week.

We also have clubs for adults. There are cooking and baking clubs in the afternoons during the week. Book lovers can join a reading club. The club meetings are always on Thursdays. Club members can talk about the latest books on the market.

Other clubs for adults are for people interested in bridge, snooker and chess. For men who enjoy making things for the house we have a new club called Do It Yourself or DIY in short. The DIY club meetings are in the evenings on week days or early afternoons at weekends.

Do you want to make more friends, have fun and learn something new? Remember the Brixton Hobby Clubs are there for you!

Hello! This is the Customers Service Department of "The Best Design" shop. Please leave a message and we will call you back as soon as possible.

Hello! My name's Peter Smith. Last Tuesday I bought a sofa in your shop. I was very satisfied with the service and the delivery was very quick, too. You brought the sofa to my house the next day, on Wednesday. Unfortunately, then my problems started. I got the sofa in three different pieces and I had to put them together. I got the instructions but only in French. I don't know why but you didn't send them in English. Anyway, I followed the pictures and somehow I managed to put the sofa together. It looked good but when I sat down on it, it collapsed. I looked under it and saw that two legs were broken. I like this sofa so I don't want a new one. Just send me two new legs as soon as possible. The order number is OR 234 and my phone number is 348 233 101. Please contact me.

Journalist: Hello, listeners! Today we have a new guest in our programme - Sean Parker, a well-known reporter, who makes programmes about travelling for the BBC. Hello Sean!

Sean Parker: Hello!

J: Sean, how often are you away from home?

SP: Oh, a lot. Last year, for example, I took twenty trips around the world and spent nine months away from home.

J: Which trip was your favourite one?

SP: I liked the trip to Turkey. I spent there one month, diving and making films. The underwater wildlife is wonderful there. But to tell you the truth, it wasn't nature but the Turkish architecture that I liked most. After work I visited lots of monuments and historical buildings. They were amazing.

J: And what was your worst trip?

SP: Oh, Kenya in Africa. I went on a safari for a week and I took pictures of animals in the wild. But when I got back to the hotel in Nairobi, the door to my room was open and there was a complete mess in it. I couldn't find my laptop anywhere. It was stolen. Luckily, I'd left money in the safe, so the thieves didn't take it.

J: Which of your trips did you find the most challenging?

SP: Definitely the one to Alaska which I made in winter. It was really hard. Before I set out, I heard lots of stories about travellers who lost their toes or fingers because of freezing temperatures. It didn't happen to me but my friend who went with me slipped on the ice and broke his leg.

J: What are your plans for the future?

SP: I am going to Barbados. I will be filming there. It'll be a private film, not for the BBC. My friend is getting married and asked me to video the ceremony. I hope I'll see some typical Barbados wedding traditions. Who knows maybe in the future I'll make a film about weddings in different countries.

J: Sean, thank you for talking to us. I hope you have a good time there.

SP: Thank you for having me here.
